BUDDHIST WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION NEWS

By Brenda K.

"No beauty shines brighter than that of a GRATEFUL HEART." ❤️

The summer has flown by and the BWA has been very busy. July's activities focused on preparations for the annual Obon Festival. The ladies were busy making Manju to sell for the event along with participating in the general preparations for the food sales.

Thank you so much to all who came to help with the Manju making on July 7-8, 2018. It is always a huge undertaking, but our appreciation is extended to all those who dedicate their time to assist. Thanks also to those who organized and prepared lunch for both days. We are also very grateful to the July toban group who prepared the luncheon that preceded the Obon service on July 22nd. The crowd was large and very appreciative of the delicious meal prepared by those women.

Ongoing during the summer some of the ladies led by Ruth S. have been preparing a quilt to be raffled at the upcoming Bazaar. Thanks to all who have helped out with that endeavor. Special thanks to Darlene M. for volunteering to do the sewing involved in creating that quilt.

Following the Obon, the BWA sponsored a bus trip to Wendover on August 12th.

Individuals from Salt Lake joined the Ogden group for the trip. Thank you to Ellen K. for organizing the trip, and thanks to Steve K. for being the bingo master and general announcer on the bus. Our appreciation is extended to all those who donated items for the goodie bags that were distributed and to Shauna R. who donated the great bags. Win or lose, everyone had a great time and enjoyed the treats.

The annual Food Bazaar is quickly approaching on October 13th and in conjunction with that event, the BWA will again be preparing Manju to sell. The group will be making Fukashi Manju on Sept 29th, Mochi Manju on September 30th and Yaki Manju on October 7th. Preparations will start at 9:00 am on each day. If you are available on any or all of those dates, your assistance is greatly appreciated.

Additionally, the BWA will be preparing sushi to be sold at the bazaar. Members are requested to assist with those preparations on Thursday, October 11th at 9:00 am, Friday, October 12th at 8:00 a.m. and Saturday, the 13th from 9:00 a.m.

The Ogden BWA will be celebrating their 100th anniversary on November 18, 2018. Please save the date and watch for further details regarding that centennial celebration.

Also, the Buddhist Churches of America produces a calendar each year, and the upcoming 2019 edition will include a collage of historical photos from our Ogden BWA. Orders are being taken for those calendars. Please contact Betty Y. to place your order ASAP since the deadline is September 15.

The next BWA meeting will be September 9th at 11:00 a.m. Please plan to participate in that meeting to support your BWA.

BWA BUS TRIP

Our annual bus trip to Wendover was on August 12th. The date was a little later than usual because the organizers of the trip were out of town in June. Even though the bus was not full, everybody who attended still had a great time. There were big winners and some not so lucky! Thanks goes out to George Y. for arranging the bus; Shauna R. for donating the bags for all the goodies; everyone who brought goodies to share and Steve K. for running the bingo games. We always have tons of snacks to eat. Next year, the bus trip will be back in June. So please plan on joining us!

DHARMA SCHOOL NEWS

Superintendent Message

We hope everyone had a great summer and are getting ready to return for a new Dharma School year. We will welcome our students back to Dharma School with a luncheon and an activity on Sunday, September 16th, starting at 11:30 am. If attending the lunch, we are requesting families contribute a salad or dessert to supplement our main course. All parents are invited to attend a planning meeting during lunch where we will plan our curriculum and activities for the 2018-19 school year. We will also coordinate the Dharma School calendar for the coming year. Dharma School service will start at 1:30 pm in conjunction with the observation of Ohigan.

A big thank you to all the Dharma School students and their parents for their help with the Obon preparations and event. Our students helped with kitchen preparations, doing various duties in the Dharma School booth area, performed various errands for the food line, and helped with the set-up and clean-up of our festivities. And, after working all their duties, many of the students performed with the Ogden taiko group and danced in the festival. A special note of gratitude to Kris Y., Kevin & Justine H., Kirk Y., and Robyn H. for keeping the Dharma School Obon booth running smoothly!

Our Dharma School students will be working the games during the annual Food Bazaar on October 13th. Due to the food bazaar clean-up on Sunday, October 14th, there will be no Dharma School held on that day nor will services be conducted.

And, since this newsletter covers events through the end of October, please mark Sunday, October 28th, on your calendars for the Salt Lake Dharma School Halloween party. We will announce more information during services as it becomes available. We will not be conducting Dharma School on the 28th.

*In Gassho,
LaVerne K.*

OHIGAN SERVICE
August / September Shotsuki Hoyo*

Sunday, September 16, 2018
1:30 p.m.

The word Higan comes from the Sanskrit word Paramita - "Other Shore." The words "other shore" refer to the "world of Nirvana." As the name Higan denotes, this is the time to remind within each and every one of us the Bodhisattva practice of the Six Paramitas of charity, morality, patience, effort, meditation, and wisdom. It is the means by which one crosses over the illusory ocean of birth and death to the other shore of Nirvana.

For those years not having a specific memorial service such as 2nd, 4th, 5th, etc. the temple is holding these monthly Shotsuki Hoyo. During these services, the temple will list the names of those members who have died during the month in the preceding years. The families then attend that monthly service in memory of their loved one. These services are not meant to replace the specific memorial services. Please contact Rev. Member Spotlight

Congratulations to Kris Y. for receiving a "Best of Davis Award" for the 2017 - 2018 school year. This is the highest recognition given to top educators and support personnel. Selections are made from hundreds of nominations sent in by co-workers, supervisors, parents or students. Only 15 Elementary teachers, 15 secondary teachers and 10 support staff are given this award each year. Kris won her award for her outstanding work at Mountain High. It is obvious that Kris goes the extra mile in all she does, as we've witnessed at the temple, and is so deserving of this award. Way to go Kris!

Kyra H. was awarded a $1,500.00 Scholarship from the Wasatch Front North JACL!
 Way to GO Kyra!
 We are SO proud of YOU!

New Beginnings

By Annette K., President-Elect

Dharma School has just started for the 2018/2019 year and as an adult I know how fast the time will fly from September to December; even retailers forget that October and November are between them. As I enjoy a peaceful and beautiful Sunday morning I wanted to write my feelings for this upcoming Dharma School year.

Life has given me some amazing moments and a lot of them have been with the families at the Buddhist Church of Ogden. I feel that as humans we are a bit of a tribal group, we feel better when we have a connection to others. The Buddhist Church has been that connection to a lot of members over the years. In good times and in bad, the church was a gathering and regrouping place. Weekly you came to hear a message, visit with others, and the youth had the Dharma School.

Well again, Dharma School is just starting and with that comes the preparations for our Bazaar. We start with the Ohigan Service the third Sunday of the month and just like that we are in the beginning of the Manju prep. Followed by outside clean up and more Manju, then it's the week of food prep with the Bazaar on Saturday and the Church Clean up on Sunday. This work takes all the BWA ladies, oh and if you don't know already the BWA is also the Dharma School leaders who are also our President, Co-President and Secretary, and about half of the Board of Directors. The flat truth is we don't have time for Dharma School! We have become so small that every person has several jobs. The sad thing is the Dharma School is the place that is not getting the attention it really needs. Our youth is our future we need to put more attention in the foundation of what is Buddhism in Ogden.

Our numbers are small but our "GEPP0" reaches a lot more people than attend service, if you are within the Greater Ogden area and read the "GEPP0" I ask you please come attend and volunteer to help so we can dedicate a group of teachers that only work on the education of the youth. Some of you may remember who your teachers were as YBA and Jr. YBA students; I would hope you have great memories of the weekly lessons and activities. I was not around in the early days but have heard of the teachers and the dedication they had to the students! Not very many of them remain with us today; we have lost so much as that dedicated generation pass away. If we don't do something soon we may never make it as a Buddhist Church going forward.

I stress again as our attendance drops each person left is taking on another responsibility, creating even less time for anything but just keeping the church running. That is when those left have come to the point of complete exhaustion! Burn out! And just the feeling of "enough"!

It comes a point in time that we are forced to make some very important decisions, what is important to us and how can we care for the things that we feel are important.

As with all churches today, attendance is dropping our situation is not uncommon but it needs our attention. We have of families that may feel Buddhism is the religion they prefer but getting involved is not something they have time for. When I was a young mother, it was hard to even think of getting involved with the church. First of all I had no idea what Buddhism was, and I really felt it was just a social thing. As the kids got older I was asked to help with the Dharma School and that started my work with the Buddhist Church of Ogden. It's not that hard to get going, and teaching is the most amazing way to learn about Buddhism. This is not just a religion it is a way of life not simply a social thing. Understandably it may not be the right one for everyone, but if you feel others don't fit then give it a try. We could use people with fresh ideas and the desire to try to help keep a Buddhist Church in Ogden.

You will see the full schedule for the upcoming months in this GEPP0 with times and dates for each event. Please understand as we get going, organization is not our expertise and it may take a few weeks to pull things together, but we would love to have new faces and volunteers to help get this church going strong again. We need to have separation between the different organizations so the few are not doing everything.

- A group of parents, and young adults that can dedicate one day a week from mid-September to mid-June to act as Dharma School teachers and represent its organization.
- A separate group that is involved in the Buddhist Women's Association (BWA) that work so hard at all the luncheons, visitations, and keeping things together.
- Again, a separate group that sit as leaders of the Buddhist Church of Ogden to see it into the future.
- And, of course, the Religious Leaders that, well without them we have no reason to be a church.

This is my wish list, four separate groups that work together to bring back a strong well attended family of close friends supporting one another in the good times and the bad. I hope others feel the same and maybe just a little afraid to step up and ask. As the saying goes, "It takes a village to raise a child" Please help us raise the children of the future Buddhist leaders. THANK YOU!
