Membership to Club Budh?

By Reverend H.

“It is impossible for us, who are possessed of blind passions, to free ourselves from birth-and-death through any practice whatever. Sorrowing at this, Amida made the Vow, the essential intent of which is the evil person’s attainment of Buddhahood. Hence, evil persons who entrust themselves to Other Power are precisely the ones who possess the true cause of birth. Accordingly he said, “Even the good person is born in the Pure Land, so without question is the person who is evil”

~Tannisho

A few weeks ago, Bishop Umezu and I were discussing some of the problems that we see in our BCA temples. As though a light bulb went off in his head he said, “They think they are all good people?!” He was referring to the fact that some of our temples have become like Christian Churches or even spiritual gymnasiums. Christian churches have the underlying view that although, they may be sinners, at their base, they are all good people, “God’s Children” the chosen people. They go to their churches on the sabbath, to work out their spiritual goodness. They are good people at heart. That is why one of the inherent defining qualities of a Christian Church is its Social Welfare and Social Justice activities.

Within Jodo Shinshu, the underlying fact is that in looking at myself and asking the question, “Who am I?” We must make the realization that I am evil. My inherent self, the essence of my being is “GAS” (Greed, Anger, Stupidity). However, when we make this deep realization, the awareness simultaneously arises, “Yet, I am alright.” This is the moment when I realize my powerlessness, at that exact moment, I understand that I am embraced in a wonderful compassion, that accepts this foolish being (Bomby) just as I am. This is the essential teaching of Jodo Shinshu. It is not that I am good and just need a little polish. This might be contrary to what most people think of what Buddhism is about.

When we first learn about Buddhism, we often hear the term Buddha nature. The common view of this Buddha nature is that we all have Buddha Nature, we just have to polish it up to shine or to become enlightened. It is as though we are going to a gym for our spiritual well-being, “Club Budh”. The Budh, from the word Buddha, means “awakened”. That is why a person who is enlightened or awakened is called “Buddha” (awakened one). The view that our Jodo Shinshu Temples are spiritual gymnasiums to polish our Buddha nature is not what they were originally intended. Jodo Shinshu views Buddha nature in a fundamentally different way. We are beings who do not have Buddha Nature, however, at the moment when we realize I do not have Buddha nature, we are embraced and the mind of Buddha becomes a part of us. Our Buddha nature is in our GAS being changed into the Buddha mind. In Jodo Shinshu this is called Shinjin. We all have Buddha nature because Amida Buddha is for all beings.

When Taylor was in High School, she came home complaining that the people at school just didn't understand what it is to be Buddhist. At first, I thought she was feeling bad because they were negative about her being Buddhist. On further discussion, her friends did not ostracize her for being Buddhist, to the contrary they thought it was really “cool” to be Buddhist. I asked her, “What’s wrong with that?” She explained that she just wished her friends realized that Buddhists were only human beings, not “cool” etc. I realized that to some extent, there is this stereotype for Buddhists, just as there were stereotypes for Japanese and Japanese American. I remember how many of my teachers in school would often tell me, “Jerry why aren't you more like the other Japanese kids. They don’t talk back or speak out in class.” as accompanied me to sit in the hallway or principal’s office for talking back. This was the so-called model Japanese American stereotype, “The quiet American”, the minority who is able to pull themselves up by their bootstraps. I definitely was not the quiet Japanese American boy, good in math and science.

In fact, as I have moved on into my senior years, I realize, it is because of my faults that I have been able to become who I am. For example, if I were smart in science or mathematics, I probably would not have become a Buddhist priest. If I were smart, when I was college, computers were just coming into the forefront of our world. In fact, the University of Utah was quite central to the world of computer graphics. I may have become the founder of a huge computer graphics world conglomerate. If I were handsome, I would not have been able to marry the perfect woman for me or have two wonderful children. If I were handsome, I would have messed around a lot more, probably partied a lot more and would have probably died from drugs, drink and too much playing around. If I were rich, I wouldn’t have been able to appreciate all my toys, because I would probably always want bigger and better toys. What I am trying to say is, to be successful in this world, is not about being the best, the smartest, the most beautiful or rich. It isn’t necessary to have Buddha nature. However, it is essential to have a place that allows you to be who you are.

Shinran Shonin writing the preface to his magnum opus Kyogyoshinsho, never said, “This then is the true teaching easy to practice for the big, smart and beautiful.” He said, “This then is the true teaching easy to practice for small foolish, beings; it is the straight way easy to traverse for the dull and ignorant. Among all teaching s the Great Sage preached in his life-time, none surpasses this ocean of virtues. Let the one who seeks to abandon the defiled and aspire for the pure; who is confused in practice and vacillating in faith; whose mind is dark and whose understanding deficient; whose evils are heavy and whose karmic obstructions manifold-let such persons embrace above all the Tathagata’s exhortations, take refuge without fail in the most excellent direct path, devote themselves solely to this practice, and revere only this shinjin.” ~CWS

Our temple is not a club for the elite of the world. I don’t think of the temple as “Club Budh” where we can shine our Buddha Nature. Our temple is more like a “GAS” station. You know the kind where you just want to hang out with your friends. Grab a cup of coffee, talk and tell stories. Which would you rather hang out at?

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Thank you for your time, your money, and all your support.

As always it takes everyone's help to put on an event like this. As with last year we saw new faces working shoulder to shoulder with our members. It is so amazing to see family members that have moved away that come back to give us a hand. The bazaar is a lot of work, and at times seems so difficult, but year after year we make it through. We appreciate the volunteers that answered the call for donations in the GEPP0, by providing in-kind donations and so much more. Thank you everyone for making this a successful event.

Mountain State Conference is being held this year in Moab, Utah again. We have the largest group ever! Over one hundred people will join together in nature and winter, and will have a great time. It can be a lot easier to be one with nature as you stand under the Delicate Arch or at the base of Balancing Rock, shoulder to shoulder chanting a sutra! Totally Amazing! We can't wait! Thank you everyone for helping with the planning of this event. Next year Longmont Temple, in Colorado will host the Mountain States Conference. They have a tentative date of the third week of October, pending our Bazaar dates. It is always nice to support our other Temples, so just putting the dates out there now.

In Gassho,

Mike & Annette K.

BUDDHIST WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION NEWS

By Brenda K.

*"If you want to touch the past, touch a rock. If you want to touch the present, touch a flower.
If you want to touch the future, touch a life." --Anonymous*

By the time this article is published, Halloween will have passed and the spooks and goblins will go into hiding until next year. Hope they didn't get any of you.

Where did the year go? We will be approaching the holiday season soon and what did we all accomplish this year?

September and October for the BWA was packed with activities and the ladies of the BWA accomplished much. Labor Day weekend saw seven members attend the 16th World Buddhist Women's Conference in San Francisco with close to 1,700 primarily Jodo Shinshu followers from around the world in attendance. The event was amazing with excellent keynote addresses delivered by Keiko Toro and Rev. Yukiko Motoyoshi, translated into three different languages. Those attending were very impressed and positively impacted by the experience.

The end of September brought preparations for the annual food bazaar with the completion of the quilt for a special raffle and the Manju making that encompassed three days of labor to complete the Yaki, Fukashi and Mochi Manju. A huge thank you to all those who came to help with that major project.

Our appreciation is also extended to those who helped with the sushi preparation that began on October 10 and culminated on October 12 with the bazaar. The crew at times was not very large, but those who dedicated their time toiled diligently to complete the preparations in a timely fashion. Thanks for all your work to make the bazaar successful!

Upcoming will be the Mountain States District Conference, November 8-10 in Moab, Utah with the Buddhist Church of Ogden as the host. This will involve many of our members to prepare and assist in hosting this event.

The BWA will hold their annual Eshinniko Service in conjunction with the temple's Eitaikyo service on November 17, 2019 with guest speaker, Rev. Ryoko Nishitani. The toban group assigned for this occasion will prepare the luncheon served at noon, followed by the service at 1:30. This service will remember those BWA members who have passed away since the last annual Eshinniko service--Yoshie Y., Yukiko K. and Taeko M. Y.. Members are requested to wear their Monto Shikisho for the service.

The general meeting for the BWA will be held November 24 at 11:00 a.m. at which time revisions to the BWA Bylaws will be reviewed and voted on. An electronic copy of the revisions will be distributed by the second week of November. Any BWA member not receiving a copy should request one by contacting Tami Hirai. This will be followed after service by the temple general meeting. Your attendance is requested to review the past year's activities and discuss issues for the upcoming year.

Our Dharma School
Students will become
ANGELS again this holiday season!

And YOU can help be a part of this Dana!

For the past several years, our Dharma School students have decided that instead of buying Christmas gifts for each other, they would prefer to use that money to give Christmas to a child who is less fortunate than them!

This is a GREAT way for our students to learn about Dana and truly share the Buddha's compassion! What a true gift of Dana from our children! Here is where you can be a part of this Dana! Just take the money you would have used to purchase gifts for our church families and donate that to this project instead. You can make your check payable to the Ogden Buddhist Dharma School and give it to our Treasurer, Betty Y. or Dharma School Superintendent, LaVerne K.

WANT TO HELP AND BECOME AN ANGEL TOO?

Our students would LOVE to have you come along. They would love to share this amazing experience with you. If you would like to join us the information is listed below.

Superintendent Message

Thank you to everyone who helped with the annual food bazaar this year! For the Dharma School activities, a special thanks to Robyn H. and Justine H. for their hard work planning and overseeing the games during the food bazaar. We appreciate all the Dharma School students' efforts, helping with the children's games, serving and bussing in the dining room and working elsewhere during the bazaar.

A thank you to the Salt Lake Dharma School for inviting us to attend their annual Halloween costume parade, luncheon and games held on Sunday, October 27th. Everyone who attended had a good time, and we all enjoyed seeing all the creative costumes.

The Dharma School will be selling Manju at the Salt Lake Buddhist Temple Holiday Boutique on November 23rd and 24th. We will be making the Manju on Saturday, November 16th at 9 a.m. We encourage all experienced helpers, especially our BWA experts, to come help our Dharma School students.

Our Dharma School students will be participating in the Salvation Army Angel Tree program again this year on Sunday, December 8th. The students pick names from the Angel Tree and use the money donated by temple families/ members to purchase items from the wish lists of children. If anyone wishes to contribute to this project, please make your checks to the Ogden Dharma School and give your donation to Betty Y., myself or any of the other Dharma School students or parents. We appreciate everyone's support and contributions to help children in need.

Just a little "thank-you"...

On Saturday, December 21st at 9 a.m., our YBA members (for new temple members, the YBA members are our high school and college kids—Young Buddhist Association) will be making mochi for their annual fundraiser, providing the opportunity for temple members and friends to purchase their New Year's supply of mochi for 2020. We will be taking orders in advance, and the mochi will be available for pick up at the Bodhi Day service on Sunday, December 22nd. In Memory of:
Yoshie Y.
Yukiko K.

The Eitaikyo Service is a memorial service for people who have handed down the teaching of the Nembutsu to us. In the glossary in our temple's service book, "Eitaikyo" is defined as a "perpetual memorial service." This is a general memorial service for all departed members of the temple. The word Eitaikyo actually means "perpetual sutra." Eitai means "perpetual" and Kyo means "sutra," or "teaching of Buddha."

At the age of 35, while meditating under the bodhi tree, Siddhartha Gautama attained enlightenment and became Sakyamuni Buddha. By his example, the Buddha showed us that it was possible for anyone to become a Buddha - a fully enlightened person. We commemorate this very special event on Bodhi Day.

This year end service is held to express gratitude for all the causes and conditions which have allowed us to live this past year. It is a time to reflect upon the interdependence of all Sangha members and the lives we live. At the end of the service all those attending the service participate in the ringing of the Joya no Kane (Last Night Bell). The Temple Bell is rung 108 times signifying the 108 Bonno or Passions that make up our human existence. This bell is rung to recognize these traits in our own personalities and express appreciation for Amida Buddha's compassion, which embraces us, even though we are bound by these passions.

For those years not having a specific memorial service such as 2nd, 4th, 5th, etc. the temple is holding these monthly Shotsuki Hoyo. During these services, the temple will list the names of those members who have died during the month in the preceding years. The families then attend that monthly service in memory of their loved one. These services are not meant to replace the specific memorial services. Please contact Rev. Hirano to make arrangements for those services.
