Selfless Giving (Dana) Temple Donations

~ By J.K. Hirano

In fact, the true act of dana paramita involves giving up what we cherish the most - ultimately our ego self. I know a school teacher who encourages the practice of dana in children by setting an example. Once, he took his students to give fruits to the homeless. In doing so, he purchased the most expensive fruits at the grocery store. When one mother complained that the homeless did not deserve such extravagance, he explained two important things about true giving. First, it requires some sacrifice on the part of the giver. To give away something that one doesn't need is not dana. Second, the act must not be condescending but must show respect to the one who receives the gift. In fact, one is grateful to the recipient who makes the act of giving possible.

~Rev. Taitetsu Unno

Dana is one of the six paramitas. It is often translated as selfless giving. It can take many forms, from monetary donations to a smile or kind words. It is giving without worrying about what you are getting in return. It is the teaching we base donations to the temple. Without Dana of any type from the smile, sweat equity, monetary, there would be no temple or Buddhist Churches of America (BCA). In Utah, we all know about the Mormons giving ten percent of their gross income to their churches. How much should you as a Buddhist give to your temple?

It seems that there are many people that do not understand how the temple financially supports itself. The membership fee to the temple does not come close to paying the expenses of the temple. Of the $150.00 for individual membership almost $90.00 goes to help our national organization BCA. To accomplish the rest of our temple's budget and activities we rely on income from events such as Obon, Food Bazaar and donations from the temple's major services. If we received 10 percent of each members' gross income, I think we would be comfortable financially. However, this is not our tradition and one of the ways we collect donations is to send out envelopes to members through the temple's newsletter as we are doing this month.

The reason I'm writing this article during the Obon season is that during one of the first Obon festivals as the minister of this temple, I said it seemed tacky to post the amount of donations for the keiko mimai. Keiko mimai is a donation made by individuals to help the temple. These are collected during the Obon dance practices (keiko). I asked if we could stop posting the amount of donation. Some of the older members told me that they felt the donation amount would go down if we didn't post the amount and name. I thought they were being cynical, however, I asked that we try it for one year. I ended up eating my honorable intentions. The donations that year were down by about 25%. The next year, we began posting the amount again, the donations went back up. I have also heard that with the change in generations and basic temple culture, many members do not know how or how much to donate to the temple. I thought that we could explain the basics.

Rev. Hirano's message continued on next page.

The major fund raisers for the temple are Obon and Food Bazaar which raise about a quarter of the operating costs of the temple. The Dharma School Building fund holds two major fund raisers -- the temple golf tournament, and the Holiday Boutique, plus booths at our food bazaar and other activities, and has raised at least $10,000.00 a year. These are all important ways to support our temple.

Whenever someone asks for a family service whether it is funeral, memorial service, wedding etc., it is customary to give two donations, one to the minister and one to the temple. The amount for these donations varies by temple and is usually equal between temple and minister, each receiving the same amount. For example, after a funeral I would receive two envelopes from the family. Each of these envelopes would contain the amount I have listed below for example $250-$500.00 for myself and the same amount for the temple. There would often be other envelopes for the various organizations of the temple. These would usually be lesser amounts.

I have asked many ministers through BCA what the donations are like at their temple and what they think about the system. Most ministers felt that there should be no set amounts for services, because it hurts the entire concept of Dana. Traditional it is left up to the giver. They examine what they believe they can afford. It's interesting how over the past fifty years, there has not been a big change in donations and amount. Most of the ministers I spoke with commented that it was interesting how it is usually non-members or members with the smaller incomes that give the most. Our temple once received a $5000.00 donation for a funeral I performed. I did not receive an equal amount. However, as this person from Japan gave me the donation $5000.00 to the temple and $1000.00 to me, he was extremely apologetic, commenting that he was only allowed to bring so much cash into the United States. I was told by some ministers in Japan that at $1000.00 would be considered a minimum donation to a minister. I was quite shocked but it is the difference between Japan and the U.S.

I am often asked by members and non member how much to donate. I usually reply that it is totally up to them. However, many new members have no idea about the amount of these donations; I would like to list the approximate range I have experienced personally and from what I have learned from other ministers and temples. There are occasions when people do not know the traditions and will offer nothing, although these are rare. The amounts I have listed are pretty consistent among the ministers I have talked to, although it seems that the Eastern District temples are a little higher and the large Betsuins are a little smaller. Most of the ministers have also received $1000.00 or more for weddings or funerals, but these are as rare as when they have not received anything. And I know there have been occasions when the temple received more than $1000. There has also been a discussion among ministers that there is a large discrepancy between ministers assigned to certain temples that have many weddings, funerals and memorial services and ones that have only a few. As I have said these are all just discussions. The amounts I am listing are just average ranges that I have heard and I hope it will help in the discussion with members and ministers.

Holiday donations - such as Obon: $25.00-$100.00

Funerals: $250-$500.00

Memorial services: $100-$300

Weddings: $250-$500.00

Organizations: Dharm School, BWA, YBA, Jr. YBA - $25-$100.00

President's Message

Hope everyone is doing well and your summer was enjoyable. The kids are back in school and Church services will restart on September 26th at 1:00 pm with Ohigan and August/September Shotsuki Hoyo.

I want to thank everyone for their support during our recent Obon Festival and Service. Obon continues to be one of the Temple's most important and popular events with the general public, and it's due to the fantastic support provided by our Temple members and friends.

Now that I've made everyone feel good about themselves, remember that Bazaar is right around the corner (October 16th). You'll find several Bazaar related articles in this GEPP0 issue that describe how you can assist during this enjoyable, but labor intensive, event.

A Bazaar planning meeting was recently held where persons were assigned to organize the major functions. If you're contacted by a Chairperson and are available, please volunteer some of your time for this, the Temple's primary fund raising activity of the year. Even if you aren't contacted and are able to help, please call Annette Koga or myself - your help will be gratefully appreciated.

Thanks again and see you at the Temple.

In Gassho,
Steven K.

DHARMA SCHOOL NEWS

Superintendent: Suzan Y.

Hello Everyone

As we approach the new school year, we would like to review our Dharma School schedule. Last year we decided to hold class following the 1:00 pm family services which was also during Sensei's Social. We want to revisit classroom times.

I would like input from Taiko and the parents if we moved back the starting time for Dharma School from 10:00 am to 10:30 am and if you wish to continue with class following family services. We will also review the Dharma School classes and committees. I appreciate those parents who have already volunteered to be teachers and serve on the monthly committees.

Dharma School is holding a planning meeting on September 12, 2010 at 8:30 am at church.
Breakfast will be served!

Is it me or did you notice it appeared we had more volunteers helping at Obon this year? It was great to see everyone pitching in to get the work done. Thank you everyone for helping out. I also want to thank Kris Y. and Justine H. for organizing the JR YBA Popsicle booth. Our 2nd – 6th grade Dharma school class really was a BIG help this year! Thank you for taking on so much responsibility this year!

5 Secrets to Permanent Weight Loss

From 9:00 – 9:50 am -- I will be speaking on Looking Back & Moving Forward, the history of the Japanese-Americans during WW2, particularly Topaz where she resided during the War. THE HIGHLIGHT OF THIS PRESENTATION IS HAVING TWO VETERANS FROM THE FAMOUS 442ND REGIMENTAL COMBAT TEAM COME AND SPEAK. These two men are great friends of mine and are so humble they want no special recognition. I would like to thank them for their support in passing along our story.

I encourage our members, men & women, to attend and listen to these two humble but very brave men. We encourage Dharma students to attend this. I can make special arrangements. Their valiant fight is history now. They are the most decorated military team in the history of our country for its size. There were 26,000 to 30,000 young Japanese Americans, men and women, during the war who volunteered to fight for our country while their families were discriminated and put in prison-like camps. They wanted to prove their loyalty to our country.

Each day nationally these veterans are passing away so please take this opportunity to hear their stories.

Pre-registration is $30 by September 6th. Day of event: $38. Lunch will be served.

For further questions, please call me, Alice H. at (Omitted for online version) or email: (Omitted for online version)

Bazaar Donations Needed

Bazaar is around the corner and we need help this year to get donations from our local businesses, members, and friends. We understand how difficult it is to ask for donations with the current economic stresses. That is why it is critical that we all try to find friends to support our most important fund raising event of the year. We can work with donations of any size including gift cards and certificates. If you need receipts for your donators, please let a board member know and we will immediately provide that for you.

We would also like to ask that our members take the Bazaar flyer and post them where you feel the public can benefit from our services. We hope to spread the word of our Bazaar to the entire community – and even beyond our community – to the entire state! We want them to know it is worth the drive! ☺

Beyond material items, we need volunteer help to help make things smooth for the evening. Some of you may have been contacted already, if you have not and can help, please contact any board member and we get you scheduled on a shift. This is the single most labor intensive event of the year and the MAIN fund raiser for our temple.

Bazaar Reminder on Home Baked Items

We are able to bring our baked goods for the Dessert area and the Dry Goods area.

They just need to follow a few rules.

- 1) No cream pies
- 2) No Cheese Cakes
- 3) Please make an ingredients label. Not your recipe just a list of ingredients for the safety of people with food allergies.
- 4) The church will post a disclaimer stating the items have been baked in a non-inspected kitchen.

Please bring all your baked goods!

August / September Shotsuki Hoyo

Sunday, September 26, 2010

The word Higan comes from the Sanskrit word Paramita - "Other Shore."

The words "other shore" refer to the "world of Nirvana."

As the name Higan denotes, this is the time to remind within each and every one of us the Bodhisattva practice of the Six Paramitas of charity, morality, patience, effort, meditation, and wisdom.

It is the means by which one crosses over the illusory ocean of birth and death to the other shore of Nirvana.
