A “FUN” Sangha

~J.K. Hirano

Article originally published in the September, 2013 “Buddhist Thoughts” Newsletter

Always obey your parents, when they are present. This is the best policy in the long run, because if you don't they will make you. Most parents think they know better than you do, and you can generally make more by humoring that superstition than you can by acting on your own better judgment.

Mark Twain, “speech to Saturday Morning Club, April 15, 1882”

As usual, it has been a very interesting and busy summer. However, the summer vacation has ended and most of our Dharma School students are back in regular school. During the Dharma School summer break, our services were changed from the regular service format that begins once again on September 15th, to a mixture of a traditional Jodo Shinshu service, with the chanting of Shoshinge and new form service, with 20 minutes of meditation, followed by a Dharma talk and a discussion group. It has been interesting to see so many people attend services during the summer. It isn't our usual Sangha, which is almost 50 percent Asians to 50 percent non-Asians, with almost 100 people attending on Sundays. During the summer, we probably average about, 30 to 50 people. When Carmela and

I began holding the summer service about 7 or 8 years ago, we were averaging 5 or ten people. This summer there was quite a good attendance but the breakdown is 10 percent Asian and 90 percent non-Asian. It will be interesting to see how our regular Sangha develops over the upcoming Dharma School year. On September 8th we will be having our Dharma School picnic. It will be held in my back yard at 13 West 3100 South, Bountiful, Utah. We usually have the picnic at North Canyon Park, which is about a mile from my home, however, this year the park was not available, so we hope you can join us at our home.

The question of how you teach children Buddhism is a question that Dharma School teachers and parents, throughout the Buddhist Churches of America (BCA) have asked for years. Looking back on my own path, I believe there isn't anything we can really teach our children in a formal way. Although the advice I began with by Mark Twain is something I believe we should tell our children, “Always obey your parents, when they are present.” The emphasis on “when they are present.”

My parents never attended Dharma School with me. During my generation, Dharma School was something children attended, not parents. I think this sent the message that attending services on a regular basis was for children, but when you were older, it wasn't really necessary. I think this may be one of the reasons our Dharma Schools are losing students. Those former Dharma School children, who don't have children of their own, don't come to service. Their parents didn't, so why should they? The Buddhism they learned as children and retain to this day wasn't what their parents said, but what they did. It was not emphasized that we never really graduate from Dharma School, we are all students of the Dharma.

A somewhat peculiar thing my Father always told me and acted upon personally was to respect the temple and Dharma. I remember he was a board member for many years and I know there were times he wasn't happy with what was going on at the temple, but he never badmouthed the temple or Sangha. He also continually told me how important the temple was in his life. This was shown to me by his participation on the temple board. He also told me, "I am a Buddhist, but you are not a Buddhist, until you decide for yourself." Maybe my becoming a priest is linked to showing my Father that I was really Buddhist. However, it wasn't what he said, but what he did. Although he didn't attend services with me on most Sundays, the temple was the center of his social and I believe moral life.

Looking at these things, I believe that our Sunday services and temple should be an enjoyable activity for the entire family, from babies to grandparents. The one message that should be taught is "FUN" Families understanding Nenbutsu. The nenbutsu is not about words in a book or places and names. The nenbutsu is sharing life with others and the gratitude that grows from the sharing of our lives. We find that within the sharing of our lives, we share the happiness and sadness, and a deep sense of gratitude begins to open up within us. It is very difficult to see these things on our own. It is in a Sangha that we begin to see the bodhisattvas that surround us at all times. I hope that our temple will be a place that bodhisattvas abound. Bodhisattvas affect us with actions and not merely words. As we live and play within this type of environment, it is the nenbutsu that naturally begins to grow within our hearts and manifests as Namo Amida Butsu.

*On seeing a bodhisattva
Perform various practices,
Some give rise to a good mind and others a mind of evil,
But the bodhisattva embraces them all.
Garland Sutra, CWS 292*

BWA NEWS

Greetings from the BWA

I can't believe it is already November, next thing you know it will be 2014. Time flies by quickly. October 20th was the BWA Memorial and Eshinniko Service. Thank you Reverend Hirano for arranging to have Reverend Yukiko Motoyoshi come and speak to us, she was a great speaker, very enjoyable. Perfect for this service. Also a big thank you to the toban group, led by Ruth Schriock, that prepared a nice lunch before service. Everything tasted yummy. The toban group that helped prepare the food were: Marion H., Mui T., Marilyn Y., Marie H., Janice S., Fran H., Annette K., Betty Y. and Madison Y.

Believe it or not the annual Ogden Buddhist Church Bazaar is over for another year.....Thanks to all who helped make the manju to sell at bazaar. I also to want thank our extra helpers that came to help without being BWA members, Madison Y. is becoming quite an expert, and also Trenton Y. and Alex H. for pounding for the mochi manju, we really appreciate it.

The BWA ladies also made a quilt again this year, thanks to all the ladies that worked on it. As always the quilt turned out beautiful. We would like to thank LINDA E. for donating ALL the beautiful material for the quilt! Thank you to Darlene M. She finished the quilt for us and also helped cover up any little mistakes we may have made. Darlene does beautiful work and we really appreciate the time she took to make the quilt look like it was done by a professional. I would also like to thank Jeannie P. for making the pillows to go with the quilt.

Just a reminder that we will be having a special service November 16, 2013 celebrating the 95th Anniversary of the Ogden BWA/Funjinkai. The service will be at 4:00 followed by dinner. Please remember to RSVP by November 4, 2013 to Ellen Kato, 801-771-1761 so we can get a count for the food.

DHARMA SCHOOL NEWS

For the past three years, our Dharma School students have given up their Christmas Exchange gift and used the money to purchase gifts for a child in need through United Way’s Angel Tree Program! This lesson on Dana gets bigger and bigger every year. Our students now look forward to making this difference in another child’s life. Imagine if everyone could give up one Christmas gift and donate the money to our Angel Tree fund instead – what an impact that would make on a child who thinks they might not have a Christmas at all. If you would like to donate to our Angel Tree fund, please see any Dharma School student. They would love to tell you what they are going to do with the money!

Dharma School will once again sell our “famous” mochi! This mochi is special because it is made with lots of ❤️!!! You can pre-order your mochi until Sunday, December 8th. You can pick up or we can deliver your mochi after our Bodhi Day Service on December 15th. Please see the order form at the end of the GEPP.

Superintendent's Message

Over the years I've observed members of the Sangha and how they have embraced the Dharma. Their selfless giving and care given to others is apparent and reflected in our Dharma School students who I've also watched since they were in preschool and now young adults. As Superintendent, I've had big shoe to fill of those serving before me. Because of you, parents, friends, teachers, board members, committee chairs and students, my responsibilities have not been arduous, but enjoyable. I appreciate everyone's input and willingness to step up and volunteer to make Dharma School a pleasant experience for everyone. James A. has graciously volunteered to be Superintendent for the new year. I know he will do a great job. Again, thank you for giving me the opportunity to serve as Superintendent.

In Gassho,
Suzan Y.

Bazaar THANK YOU!

The pre-planning of Bazaar begins in the summer followed by several months of careful planning to bring everything together for our annual Bazaar. It's overwhelming if you think about all the details in each of the different areas. There are no words to express our deep appreciation to the families and students for helping with this year's Bazaar. Thank you Justine H. and Robyn H. for chairing the Dharma School Children's Games! This is a very important part of our Bazaar and it could not happen without their continued support!

A special thank you to Dana and Bob M. and the National JACL Credit Union for bringing their games. They are a nice addition for our children! Thank you to Georgia and Max Y., Bart and Robyn H., and Kevin and Justine H. for donating all the game prizes and gift cards for the kids special raffle!

Eitaikyo & November Shotsuki Hoyo
Sunday, November 24, 2013
Service at 1:30 p.m.

The Eitaikyo Service is a memorial service for people who have handed down the teaching of the Nembutsu to us. In the glossary in our temple's service book, "Eitaikyo" is defined as a "perpetual memorial service." This is a general memorial service for all departed members of the temple. The word Eitaikyo actually means "perpetual sutra." Eitai means "perpetual" and Kyo means "sutra," or "teaching of Buddha."

Bodhi Day & December Shotsuki Hoyo
Sunday, December 15, 2013
Service at 1:30 p.m.
Otoki Lunch at 12:00 p.m.

GUEST SPEAKER: Bhante Madawala Seelawimala

After entering the monastery at the age of nine, he began his studies after graduating from University in Sri Lanka, his teacher who was a friend of Bishop Kenryu Tsuji suggested he come to the United States to live and teach Buddhism. He has been a professor of Buddhism at IBS for over 25 years. He has founded temples in Sacramento and other areas.

At the age of 35, while meditating under the bodhi tree, Siddhartha Gautama attained enlightenment and became Sakyamuni Buddha. By his example, the Buddha showed us that it was possible for anyone to become a Buddha - a fully enlightened person. We commemorate this very special event on Bodhi Day.

Joya-E
(Last Night Gathering) New Year's Eve Service
Tuesday, December 31, 2013
Service at 8:00 p.m.
Potluck Dinner prior to service at 6:30 p.m.

This year end service is held to express gratitude for all the causes and conditions which have allowed us to live this past year. It is a time to reflect upon the interdependence of all Sangha members and the lives we live. At the end of the service all those attending the service participate in the ringing of the Joya no Kane (Last Night Bell). The Temple Bell is rung 108 times signifying the 108 Bonno or Passions that make up our human existence. This bell is rung to recognize these traits in our own personalities and express appreciation for Amida Buddha's compassion, which embraces us, even though we are bound by these passions.
