Adventures in Wonderland

By Reverend J.K. Hirano

Kimyo Muryo Ju Nyorai

I take refuge in the Buddha of Unlimited Life.

Namo Fukashigi Ko

I take refuge in the Wondrous light.

It seems surreal that it has been 34 years since I first went to Japan. I have probably been to Japan 10 or 15 times, maybe more? However, it never gets easy, the jetlag, the humidity, the language, the crowds of people. Every time I go, I think it will get easier, every time I come back, I'm so grateful I live in America and my grandfather made the choice to leave Japan over one hundred years ago. Strangely I always love going to Japan and upon returning to America, look forward to when I will return. It feels as though I am Alice falling through the rabbit hole into Wonderland, in this case, Japanland. The purpose of this trip was to accompany Bishop Umezu to the annual Bishop's meeting. This meeting is held once a year, last year it was held in Antwerp, along with the European Shin Buddhist Conference. This year it was held in conjunction with the last of the Dento Hokoku Hoyo (Accession ceremonies for the 25th Gomonshu Sennyō Shōnin).

Last year in Europe, Carmela and I added a week of travel though Europe. This year, it was two days of meetings, the accession ceremony, one more day of meetings, one day for shopping and seeing friends and then back. Just as my body seemed to adjust to the time change, I had to return to the U.S. The first three days, I was waking up at about 3:30 a.m., I would try to stay in bed as long as possible, but would get up around 4:15. I would make a cup of coffee, take a shower and leave for the morning service at Honganji, which begins at 6:00 am. Thursday, I had caught a cold and felt pretty run down, with the jet lag and hours and hours of meetings, plus the unusually hot and humid days. Finally, on Friday morning, I slept until 7:00 am. It could have been the various drugs I took for my cold that allowed me to sleep. However, I was grateful with the full 7 hours of sleep.

In addition, to this normal travel adjustment, before leaving for Japan on May 20, I had four days of meetings at the Jodo Shinshu Center. As a result, I had to bring a lot of medications that I'm not used to traveling with. I always keep my insulin pens with me, but because of the length of this trip, I had put the extra insulin pens in the refrigerator in my room at the Jodo Shinshu Center in Berkeley. Rev. Kuwahara and I were on the plane to go to Japan, but electrical problems had delayed the flight three hours. We were sitting in the plane waiting, when I realized I had forgotten my insulin. I had enough insulin for two more days, but would run out by Tuesday and I wouldn't be back to the U.S. until Saturday. I urgently texted Rev. Harada to see if he could contact Judy Kono to try to send my pens to Japan via overnight. We texted back and forth, but the soonest Fed Ex could get the insulin to me would be Wednesday. Rev. Kuwahara assured me that Japan would have the medications I needed. However, it was still an anxious few days to see if Japan had the insulin I needed, luckily they did.

Through all this confusion, the thought of Namo Amida Butsu calmed me. Every time I would get out of sorts, I would pause and feel the Nembutsu. When I was younger, I felt the Nembutsu was a thing to understand. It was an object to study. As I have gotten older, the Nembutsu has little by little worked on me to soften the hard, stupid, ignorance of my natural self and showed me that within this powerful essence, everything is okay and as it should be.

This really hit me during the ceremony for the New Gomonshu's accession. During the main ritual we chanted Shoshinge. As many of you know, Shoshinge is Shinran Shonin's understanding of Jodo Shinshu in a nutshell. As we take refuge in the Inconceivable working of the Vow of Amida, this is the Nembutsu moving to embrace us. It is the desire of Life itself moving through us, to wake up, to our life in the realm of gratitude. As we chant the Shoshinge we travel from the Universal realm of Namo Amida Butsu, the life of the Bodhisattva Dharmakara becoming Amida Buddha becoming Shakyamuni Buddha's enlightenment itself. The power of the vow passes to the seven patriarchs on to Shinran and to myself. Namo Amida Butsu is all around me but as I chant it, I feel the movement as it envelops and embraces me. The chanting of the Nembutsu during this new ritual for the Gomonshu was extremely melodic and I felt that all the various ups and downs I have experienced in life, was just right for me and where I was spiritually. Without my Grandfather's desire to leave Japan over one hundred years ago, I would not find myself in Japan chanting the Shoshinge at Honganji in celebration of the accession of our new Gomonshu.

It is an incredibly humbling experience to look at my life and realize what a wonder it is. Within this life, I have experienced incredible joy and incredible sadness. There are times when I wonder if I can even endure the pain and live through it. This up and down is the essence of life itself, it is the meaning of impermanence. To not experience both, is to not truly live. However, the link, the connection of it all, is Namo Amida Butsu. I believe the late Rev. Jitsuen Kakehashi expressed it best.

Many things occur in human lives.

But, whatever difficulties or sadness that we may have experienced,

if we can look upon our lives as being rare and wondrous events, then we will truly have lived.

If we are able to realize this realm of gratitude, in which we are able to live-and die-in gassho,

then what else could we need?

Rev. Jitsuen Kakehashi, Bearer of the Light,

May each of you truly take refuge in the light, Namo Amida Butsu.

In Memory

The Ogden Buddhist Temple Sangha extends its deepest sympathies to the families of the following member who recently passed away.

May the family members find solace and comfort in the Nembutsu.

Namo Amida Butsu

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings everyone, we hope that everyone is doing well.

On May 19-20, our Dharma School youths attended a Leadership workshop with emphasis on their Japanese heritage presented by Kizuna-Los Angeles Group at Salt Lake Buddhist Temple. Twenty-eight youths ages 14-24 attended Friday night and eighteen youths ages 7-13 attended Saturday with an activity of pounding Mochitsuki and making mochi with and without An. It was a great experience for our youths and we will be planning another workshop next year.

Plans are in motion for our Obon Odori Festival on July 15th. Food sales will be held from 4:00 through 6:30 pm. Taiko's first performance begins at 7:30 pm and again at intermission. Obon dancing begins at 8:00 pm. Please note Obon Dance practice in calendar beginning June 26th.

Obon, Hatsubon and July Shotsuki Hoyo service will be held at the Church Sunday, July 16 at 1:30 pm. Before service, gravesite visits will precede at the Syracuse cemetery at 10:30 am, followed by Washington Heights at 11:15 am, and concluding at the Ogden cemetery at 11:45 am. The BWA will serve lunch after the graveside visits at 12:30 and prior to service.

The Obon weekend requires a lot of effort so any assistance you can provide would be greatly appreciated. We'll have outside church clean-up Sunday, July 9 at 8:00 am and Obon food preparation days will be July 13 and 14 beginning at 6:00 pm.

Thank you for all your support with Obon and making it fun and successful. If you have any questions regarding how you can help, please contact Annette K., Ruth S., Suzan Y. or Shauna R.

June 10 was a busy day with the rummage sale and the Dharma School project. The rummage sale was a great success due to the generosity of our members and friends who donated furniture, household items, clothing, children's items and more. A special thank you to those who helped with the preparations, it was an enormous undertaking. LaVerne K., did a great job coordinating the efforts of the Dharma School parents and students to sand and repaint the 27 small wooden tables that were repaired earlier this year. This was a great way to close out the Dharma School year.

In Gassho,

BUDDHIST WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION NEWS

By Brenda K.

The year is just flying by with Obon upcoming this month...July already! Seems we just finished the sushi sale.

Thank you to all who supported the BWA Sushi Sale on May 14. It was very successful due to all the ladies who came to help and all the members who placed orders and purchased the sushi. Your participation was very much appreciated.

June 10 was the temple rummage sale. Again appreciation is extended to all who assisted with the sorting and pricing of all the items. The sale went well; however, there was still merchandise left after the sale. Many of the BWA were there to help with not only the sale, but the clean-up and disposal of the remaining merchandise. Thank you to all who spent long hours for the preparation, sale and clean-up.

Who were the big winners for the BWA bus trip to Wendover on June 25? Thank you to Ellen K. for making the arrangements and organizing the bus and sign-up. The bus was packed and a great time was had by all.

Upcoming this weekend is the manju making in preparation for the Obon Festival on July 15. All available BWA members are requested to help with the manju on Saturday and Sunday, July 1 & 2 from 8:00 a.m. at the temple.

In conjunction with the Obon will be the general preparation of the food items. Members are asked to assist with the preparation on Friday and Saturday. Friday's preparation will start at 6:00 p.m. and Saturday will be 9:00 a.m. Please come and help.

The next BWA meeting will be August 6, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. in the north classrooms. Following the meeting those who are able will be preparing the quilt to sell at the bazaar in October. Please attend either or both if you are available.

Superintendent Message

The Ogden Dharma School hosted the Salt Lake Temple Dharma School for our annual Lagoon Day on June 4th. We appreciate everyone who attended and provided musubi, salads and side dishes. Our thanks to Kris and Steve Y. and Betty and Kirk Y. for making all the food arrangements, bringing all the equipment and drinks for this great annual event. And, thanks to Betty Y. for handling the finances for the tickets sales. We had a good crowd from both temples, and everyone enjoyed the rides. And, as a special treat for all of us, we were able to enjoy the performance by Kenny F. in this year's main show at Lagoon.

The temple board asked the Dharma School to refinish the historical, small rectangular tables that have been part of the temple furnishings as long as I can remember. So, during the church rummage sale preparations on Friday, June 9th and all day on Saturday, June 10th, during the rummage sale, both the Dharma School students and their parents worked hard to sand and paint the tables. A few of us were skeptical that we would finish over the weekend, but thanks to our hard working volunteers, we were able to finish the daunting task by late Saturday. The 21 brown stained and varnished tables are now a glossy black. A big thank you to all who came and helped out!

On Sunday, June 11th, we were able to honor our seven--yes, seven high school and college graduates! For our high school graduates, we are able to give a shout out to Catherine A. and Andrew K. Catherine graduated from Ogden High School. She will be moving to Denver to dance with the Colorado Ballet organization. Andrew graduated from Northridge High School. He will be attending Weber State University this fall. Congratulations to both of our high school graduates!

Our college graduates this year are Trenton Y., KayLene Y., Mackenzie H., Samantha C. and Aimee K.

Trenton Y. graduated with his M.S. degree in Accounting from the University of Utah, David Eccles School of Business. Trenton did an internship with Grant Thornton' Denver office over a year ago, and his performance was so impressive, they offered him a position to join their firm. He will start his full-time career with the firm in the fall, and we look forward to watching Trenton continue his great accomplishment in his professional career!

KayLene Y. graduated from the University of Utah with a double major, a B.S. in Biology and a B.S. in Business Administration. Wow! KayLene is already working at the University of Utah in the Biology Laboratories. She is planning to attend graduate school to pursue further education in Biology.

Mackenzie H. graduated from the University of Utah with a B.S. in Sociology. Mackenzie is preparing for the graduate entrance exams so she can attend law school. We look forward to watching Mackenzie's future career path.

Samantha C. graduated from the University of Utah with a B.S. in Speech and Hearing Sciences. Samantha has accepted an offer from Texas Tech University's master's program, and she will starting their graduate program in the fall.

Congratulations

Aimee K. graduated from California State University East Bay with a B.S. in Chemistry. Aimee was accepted and has already started the University of Utah's School of Architecture 3+ master's program, already designing 3D models and working several other projects.

Congratulations to all our impressive graduates! I think we will be seeing great accomplishments from our Class of 2017!

In addition to the graduates, we honored our Dharma School students with attendance awards. Congratulations to Madison Y. and Marlene H. for achieving perfect attendance this year. Also, congratulations to Andrew K. for achieving an attendance award, just missing one day during the 2016-17 year of Dharma School.

Another Dharma School year has come to a close. Personally, I want to thank Annette K., our Dharma School religious chair, for all she does to ensure our Dharma School services happen, week after week, doing all the behind the scenes coordination and organization so we can conduct service each week. Also, a special thanks to Kris Y. for being our technology expert and performing all the administrative aspects of our Dharma School. And, my gratitude to Betty Y. for making sure we stay in the black and working the accounting for all our messy transactions!

Finally, I would like to thank the Sangha for their support and helping out with another successful school year for our kids. All of our parents and adult temple members are so great, stepping in to help out with both planned and unplanned events. I am grateful to all of you for helping out for the benefit of our Dharma School students, the future of our temple.

We look forward to seeing you all to help with Obon. The next Dharma School planning meeting will be held on Sunday, August 27th at 11 a.m.

July Shotsuki Hoyo

This special service is held on the Sunday following the Obon Festival. This memorial service is held in dedication and gratitude for all the members of our Sangha who have died over the previous year. Its basis is the same as our Obon Festival. Kangi-E is the name used traditionally in our Jodo Shinshu Tradition. This name represents the joy we feel for Amida Buddha's vow to save all sentient beings and the joy in knowing our deceased Sangha members are likewise embraced in that compassion.
